Versatility Challenge 2018

In order to encourage our multi-talented Curly-Coated Retrievers, the CCRCA is sponsoring a Versatility Challenge during the 2018 National Specialty. Events occurring May 27th through May 31st are eligible. Owners of the participating Curlies must be members of the CCRCA, Curlies may be handled by either members of non-members in any of the events. Curlies need to pass a Hunting/Field Event, receive a qualifying score in a performance event (Obedience, Rally, Agility or Barn Hunt) and also receive a ribbon in a conformation event. (Sweepstakes/Regular or Non-Regular Classes/Altered Conformation)

Curlies who complete the versatility challenge will receive a rosette and certificate at the banquet, and will be featured in the specialty issue of the Commentator.

Visit the specialty page at ccrca.org for entry information and the rules.

The AKC National Owner Handled Series will be conducted following Best of Breed judging in each breed ring. All dogs in the BOB competition (including WD & WB) will stay in the ring after the judge makes their placements in BOB competition. The ring steward will ask all professional handlers, household members and current assistants to professional handler to leave the ring and then the judge will select the Best Owner-Handled (BOH). The dog and its owner will continue to accrue points for any group placements or Bests in Show. The top-ranked dogs from the AKC National Owner-Handled Series are posted on the AKC National Owner-Handled Series Points Ranking page. Rankings of the dogs competing in the Series are compiled based on the Best of Breed, Group, and Best in Show placements in this specific Series competition. (See Point Schedule). The end of year competition from the AKC National Owner Handled Series will be held in conjunction with the AKC show in December. Dogs that finished ranked in the top ten (plus ties) for their breed during the qualifying period will be invited to compete in the competition. Dogs exhibited by professional handlers on the day of the event are not eligible for this competition. Dogs exhibited by current assistants and household members of a professional handler on the day of the event are not eligible to enter this competition. Professional handlers are defined as any person who belongs or has belonged to a professional handlers' organization, distributed rate cards or otherwise advertised or represented themselves as handling dogs for pay within the last five years. For more information about the Series or if you have any questions about hosting these events, please contact the AKC Events department at (919) 816-3579 or eventnews@akc.org.
